Synopsis

From lifeguarding on China Beach during the Vietnam War to piloting commercial airliners and eventually running a medical clinic, Doc Moore spent his life reinventing himself—driven by intelligence, faith, and an insatiable desire to learn. But when a con man infiltrates his world and robs him of everything—his clinic, his savings, even his family—Doc loses more than his fortune; he loses his way. With nothing left but a prayer, he must confront the past, reckon with his regrets, and rediscover the faith that once guided him... if he's ever to become the man he was always meant to be.
